The Haunted House

| Adjective |
|----------------------|
| Noun |
| Noun |
| Noun |
| Noun |
| Pronoun |
| Verb - Past Tense |
| Verb - Present Tense |
| Noun |
| Pronoun |
| Adverb |
| Pronoun |
| Noun |
| Adverb |
| Adjective |
| Verb - Past Tense |
| Pronoun |
| Adjective |
| Adjective |
| Adjective |
| Adverb |
| Verb - Past Tense |
| Noun |
| |

| 24. | Verb - Past Tense | |
|-----|----------------------|----------|
| 25. | Adverb | |
| 26. | Verb - Present Tense | |
| 27. | Pronoun | |
| 28. | Pronoun | |
| 29. | Adverb | . |
| 30. | Adverb | |
| 31. | Verb - Past Tense | |
| 32. | Verb - Past Tense | |
| 33. | Noun | |

The Haunted House

| One dark and scary Haloween night, my friend and I decide to go trick-or-treating on Hallows Road. Not only is |
|--|
| Hallows road famous for the, badest treaters, or the best candy but the old Willow |
| That old has been around for a loong time. Its rumored that there are ghosts and |
| ghouls and and monsters and eyeballs and spiderwebs and and armored suits and |
| traps and ghosts and ghost AND GHOSTS!! Even just the thought scared We We |
| Past Tense up the hill Verb - Present Tense gallons and Noun of candy! Snickers and peanut butter |
| cups. Kisses Jolly Ranchers werent going to sleep tonight. We went house to |
| house candy to candy. Slowly we neared the house until we were at doorstep. " Come on lets |
| Noun this house" Adverb siad. I was Adjective about the house. My friend on the other |
| hand had no hesitation about it. As she was knocking on the door it slowly open.We |
| pronounpeeked in to see aAdjective,Adjective,Adjective room with out dated |
| furniture. As we tiptoed in the slammed shut behind us. We both verb - Past Tense in |
| complete Noun She quick Verb - Past Tense her flashlight and shined it in the room. There was a |
| Adverb portrait of a man with a scary, Verb - Present Tense frowning face. we walked |
| to the kitchen the longest walk of lives, seeing Adverb we had never |
| seen before. Slowly but surely we got into the kitchen and her battery died. We were again in |
| complete darkness bumbping into each other and walls. She accidently tripped on something and |
| Past Tense right into the back door. It Verb - Past Tense open and we sprinted back home. We got home |
| and |

hid under the cover. That was on heck of a ????

©2025 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.