Sylvester Manor

In 1652 Sylvester manor was settled. Today, we actively cultivate four acres in _____ Noun - Plural, _____ Noun - Plural and _____ Noun - Plural without the use of chemical pesticides, visible in our bucolic

Windmill Field on Manwaring Road. More farming is occurring elsewhere on the property. The _____ Adjective Big Field in our northeast corner was plowed for the first time in decades last fall and planted with cover crop. This spring, we will begin _____ Verb - Present Tense our eastern old fields, long out of cultivation and part of the 83 acres of land preserved forever as farmland in 2012. The Hidden Field, site of the 2011 Plant & Sing Festival, will provide _____ Adjective pastureland for our livestock this year and beyond.

_____ Adjective - Comparative fields and _____ Adjective areas will also be cultivated as our farm planning advances.
