_____ one! Dan knew that Nicole was the noun of his plural noun and that he wanted to spend the rest of his noun with her. Picking out the adjective ring for Nicole seemed adjective to Dan. He searched far and wide until he finally found the adjective ring Name of Store had to offer. Dan knew this is the ring he wanted for Nicole, so he offered the clerk Dollar Amount for the ring. The clerk said, "What are you adverb verb? This ring is worth way more than that." Dan was mood , but he then decided to offer Higher Dollar Amount for the ring, and the clerk agreed. After bringing the ring home, Dan needed to find the adjective moment to propose to Nicole. He waited until Nicole was done Household Activity and popped the question. "Nicole" he said, "You are the adjective that has ever verb to me, and I want your body part in marriage". Nicole verb and filled was emotion. She replied, "Of course, Dan. Nothing in this world would make me adjective than being your noun!" Nicole and Dan were both filled with emotion. They couldn't wait for their wedding day, where they would become each other's noun and noun.
