

Day at the USO

1. Noun
2. Adjective
3. Adverb - Comparative
4. Noun
5. Noun - Plural
6. Verb
7. Verb
8. Adjective
9. Verb

Day at the USO

How important is our _____^{Noun}? Enough that we are all _____^{Adjective} enough to lead these lives of asking people to allocate some of their hard earned capital for a sense of personal satisfaction of making things _____^{Adverb - Comparative}. You have chosen to make a _____^{Noun} in the world - to improve the lives of those we support. _____^{Noun - Plural} will hang up on you, they will promise to give and then won't. They will also _____^{Verb} and surprise you. You will _____^{Verb} yourself on so many things, be the _____^{Adjective} to know, and burnout will happen, but you will _____^{Verb}.