Vocabulary List 3 Practice

| William yawned and stretched after his alarm clock woke him up. He flipped a switch, and a bright yellow light |
|--|
| filled his bedroom. He had been trying to from coffee for the week, but he found himself unable                |
| to do so and began to brew a pot. Once it finished brewing, he opened his refrigerator, which was              |
| with many different types of coffee creamer, and selected a french vanilla cream. He poured it                 |
| into his cup and watched the creamy cloud the dark coffee. Taking a slow sip, he found                         |
| himself with a new, powerful energy. He suddenly felt, ready to take on  |
| the world.   |
|  |
| After deciding to the entire pot of coffee, William decided to get ready for work. He was                      |
| by a problem with their new printer. It did not seem able tothe  |
| amount of printing that his company needed, and would break down after only a few minutes' use. He decided     |
| that he would probably have to a page-limit policy, which his employees would hate. Full                       |
| of coffee and determination, William hopped in his car and headed off to work.                                 |
