

Cosmicomics: The Spiral

1. Name - Masculine
2. Verb - Present Third Person Singular
3. Verb - Perfect Passive Participle
4. Noun
5. Adjective
6. Adjective - Begins With Consonant
7. Noun
8. Adjective
9. Verb - Bare Infinitive

Cosmicomics: The Spiral

For _____ NAME - masculine bachelorhood passes in the utmost simplicity. He is formless thus unbounded. His mollusk person _____ VERB - present third person singular sensibles from the water, the analysis of which presents the first evidence of other beings surrounding. He is _____ VERB - perfect passive participle then relieved.

He infers a division between the sexes into _____ NOUN and female, and _____ ADJECTIVE discrimination captivates him in love. His jealousy grows as he perceives the capacities in his relationship for confusion and dissolution. So he decides to establish himself in a _____ ADJECTIVE - begins with consonant _____ NOUN, which he makes out of him as each of the others make out of and around each of them.

This manufacture is _____ ADJECTIVE; it serves also at once to _____ VERB - bare infinitive in form Herodotus, Cleopatra, train, beach, and future girl's recognition of his further self. His shell, Qfwfq's, its vibrancy gives vision to this world. Images are for humans.