Our Story...your perspective

Who ever knew that a Noun that started back in 2003 would rekindle 5 Noun - Plural later and grow into something amazing. In 2008 it was by chance that we would meet again through some mutual Noun - Plural on an indoor soccer Noun. At first we were both very shy about wanting to Verb - Base Form one another, but after hanging out and catching up on what we accomplished since high school, we started to Verb - Base Form. Over the next 4 years we became Adjective - Ends in EST Noun - Plural, soul-mates and then in October of 2012 we were engaged. On a Adjective clear night, with the stars Verb - Present ends in ING their brightest and the moon overhead, Chris took me for a Adjective walk along Pacifica Beach in San Francisco where we reminisced about our Adjective adventures and memories that we had made. While Verb - Present ends in ING along, Chris told me how much he loved me and how he wanted to continue to go on Adjective adventures with me for the rest of his Noun, he dropped to one Part of Body and asked me to Verb - Base Form him. Full of happiness, joy, and overwhelmed by Noun - Plural I said yes.
