Furlough

Dear Adjective Employee, Due to a lapse in Fiscal Year 2014 appropriations, we have no choice but to you. While your work with is very important, your services are no longer needed for the operations of the government. Don't worry about your work while furloughed, we have found that are very adept at performing your duties. We know we assured you that you'd have your last paycheck; however sufficient funds are not available. We will be able to pay you in . Congress has been at an impasse and has called in and and to help the stalemate.
You do have the right to appeal this furlough to the within 30 calendar days. If you do appeal, you will be in the best of hands as has been pointed to represent all appeals. If you don't appeal, grab some and enjoy the show that is the government of the United States.
Sincerely,
PresidentFamous World Leader
