Customer Care

From the _____<sup>Noun</sup> I got the call about getting a position here in Customer Care at Green Dot, I was
and would be starting a new _____<sup>Noun</sup> that will never be forgotten. The longer I was here, the more I started to wonder what I had gotten myself into. Green Dot corporation, after all, had been around for at least ten years and was the leading prepaid card provider. It was a new experience for me; something I have never encountered.
The customers we were dealing with were so different. My manager, who I would describe as _____<sup>Adjective</sup>,
love if it he just _____<sup>Verb - Past Tense</sup> the _____<sup>Noun</sup> for me. He told me, one day you're going to
Service week. I just _____<sup>Verb - Past Tense</sup>.
