Twerking Graham

"I can't believe it! How could I be kicked out of Halloween costume party?" I thought to myself as I walked down the, lonely road of Elm Street. I tried not to worry too much about the I'd heard as I walked past the dark alleyways, thinking they were just stray animals. But as I found myself past a peculiarly lit alleyway, the growling I'd heard was unlike anything I'd ever heard before. The growling was coming from a Twerking Graham.
The Twerking Graham I had spotted was obviously, it had scratches and bite marks all over it.
I'd assumed it had been in a fight, considering there was a dead Twerking Miley on the ground. I decided to take it home and care for it.
We instantly became attached. I even came up with a name for him! I named him, but he seemed to like his nickname, G-Ram. G-Ram made a lot of friends in the neighborhood. People really did like him! But G-Ram also made some enemies. One fateful night, G-Ram was out the streets and managed to find trouble.
