or at least he thought he was. He went into the house and saw the wolf finishing off his lunch (grandpa). Billy was so frightened he felt like he wanted to run home and never come out but he wanted to show courage so he went up to the wolf and stabbed him right in the back. Blood was rushing all over the place.

The axe man heard a howl from grandpa's house, so he rushed over to see what was happening. He saw the wolf with Billy's dagger in his back. The axe man had been trying to kill this wolf for years and he was about to finish the job. He swung his axe at the wolf and chopped his head right off. The axe man kept the head for a souvenir.

His grandpa came out of the wolf's stomach still alive. Then the wolf was turning all black and red. They saw right then that the wolf was actually an evil witch. She had been punished for killing and using spells that had been forbidden so the good witch had turned her into a wolf. Billy was relieved that his grandpa was still alive.

Later that day Billy was awarded a chest of gold from a fairy godmother for killing the evil witch. People were thankful for Billy because he killed the evil witch. He was not mistreated anymore and he made a lot of new friends. His family was no longer poor, so they got a big house.

3 months later Billy's Grandpa died at age 87 but he didn't die of old age he was poisoned by someone. Billy did love his Grandpa so he wanted to find out who killed him. Billy was on his way to investigate who killed him and off he went on another adventure. the end.
