The Mysterious Thing

Once upon a time, there was a _____ named _____. _____ liked to walk around the forest where _____ lived. The _____ was _____ and _____, which is exactly why _____ liked it so much.

One day, _____ met up with _____ friend _____. First, they decided to look around for something to eat. _____ led the way and _____ followed close behind. But then, _____ saw something out of the corner of _____ eye. _____ wanted to take a closer look, so _____ left _____ and wandered off to find out what it was. When _____ got to the mysterious thing, _____ realized it was nothing but a penny. Somebody must have dropped it there. _____ turned around to find _____, but _____ was nowhere to be seen!

Now _____ was alone and very scared. How would _____ find _____? Suddenly, _____ heard a voice calling out. " _____! _____! Where are you?" _____ ran toward the voice and found _____ waiting for _____. " _____, you shouldn't wander off like that," _____ said. "You could get seriously lost!"

"I'm glad you found me," Character Two said. "Next time I'll remember to stick with you!"
