Nanowrimo

This November the _____ students at Kamiakin Middle School are _____ in a program called NaNoWriMo. NaNoWriMo stands for National Novel _____ Month.

Students create _____ goals where they try to write 30, _____ words. It is important to _____ every day to do well in NaNoWrimo. The _____ thing is you can write about _____! Some students are writing stories where the main character is captured by _____.

Others are writing stories where a _____ has to go on a quest to save the _____, defeat the evil _____, and get lots of _____. Sometimes the stories are _____ and make the reader shout, _____! Kamiakin even had a _____ author come and talk about her book, Cinder.

Cinder is about a _____ girl and takes place in the _____. It's a really _____ book!

All of the kids have been working hard on writing for NaNoWriMo, but I'm sure they'll be very _____ when it's over!
