

Christmas Antics

1. Verb - Present Ends In Ing
2. Male Name In The Room
3. Adjective
4. Verb - Past Tense
5. Adjective
6. Number
7. Planet
8. Adjective - Ends In Est
9. Noun
10. Location
11. Adjective
12. Female Name
13. Color
14. Game
15. Endearing Name
16. Verb - Present Ends In Ing
17. Adverb
18. Adjective
19. Noun - Plural
20. Part Of Body
21. Adjective
22. Noun

Christmas Antics

Ho ho ho! Merry Christmas!

Once upon a time, Santa Claus was _____ Verb - Present ends in ING _____ around the North Pole looking for a certain elf.

"Where are you, _____ Male name in the room _____?" he bellowed. This elf had committed a _____ Adjective _____ crime against all the inhabitants of the North Pole: he _____ Verb - Past Tense _____ Santa's toys for all the _____ Adjective _____ girls and boys! It was _____ Number _____ weeks before Christmas and Santa's toy shop had to make all new toys for every child on _____ Planet _____! The elf was found to be hiding under the _____ Adjective - Ends in EST _____ Christmas _____ Noun _____ in the lobby of the North Pole _____ Location _____, scared and _____ Adjective _____ of Santa's wrath.

_____ Female name _____ the _____ Color _____-nosed reindeer thought he was playing _____ Game _____, so when he saw the elf he cried out "Found you, _____ Endearing name _____!" The elf's cover was blown, and he could see Santa _____ Verb - Present ends in ING _____ towards the area. The elf ran _____ Adverb _____ into the North Pole bakery, which was a bad idea because Santa is a _____ Adjective _____ fatty and loves _____ Noun - Plural _____! Somehow, Santa caught up to him, picked him up by the skin of his _____ Part of Body _____, and put him on top of a _____ Adjective _____

_____ Noun _____ for a jolly Santa lecture.