Non Stoppable Rain

Once upon a time, there was a city in the South of Brazil that was very Adjective. The city is Adjective, colorful and there are Adjective gardens. But the city had one big problem, it is always raining. It's raining from midnight til midnight every single day. Some people saw the colorful Noun - Plural and it was raining men and they became very happy-like Adjective. The children don't like the rain, because they need to stay at home and not Verb - Present ends in ING on the Noun. But one day a little boy decided to not follow the Noun - Plural and got out of his house in the middle of the rain. So he Verb - Past Tense a lot in the rain. The other kids became upset with their parents to dance with the little boy. Verb - Present ends in ING that, the big Noun decided to stop the rain. And it never Verb - Past Tense again in the city...
