Happy Birthday, Carol!

A few years ago Carol was born in a Noun. She was a Adjective baby girl. As she grew up she spent a lot of time Verb - Present Tense with her sister Esther. They often played Noun - Plural together. They also helped their mom Noun and Adjective. When Barbara came along Esther and Carol helped take care of her too. They Verb - Past Tense with her and Verb - Past Tense her. They secretly thought that Barbara was the most Adjective child. As Carol grew up she was Adjective and Adjective. She loved school and enjoyed playing Noun - Plural. She also loved to help her Daddy work on his Noun. When Carol started having her own children she felt very Verb - Past Participle. They were smart, loving and Noun. She worked hard as an Noun, Noun, Noun, and general manager in her lifetime. Her favorite job though is being a Noun and great Noun. Her family brings her much Noun. She has celebrated a few birthdays but this one is her favorite because all of you are here. For that, she says Verb Pronoun! So, here's to Carol and her 75 years of Noun and Noun.
