Online Dating. (for girls, gay guys :))

So you wake up in the time of day and you immediately log into your bodypart -book, your ok-mythical character profile, or your Noun .com and something Adjective has happened. You have a message from a guy. and not just the usual Adjective not your type at all creepy Noun guys you're used to. this one is sexy, like Adverb sexy. the kind of guy you've been Verb - Present ends in ING about your entire life. You look at his Noun, and you find out that he's number years old, has color eyes, and color hair, just like you like on a man. Also, he's an occupation, which means he is probably rich as type F u c k. and the message he sent said that he thinks you are Adjective. so you immediately reply with " you're pretty Adjective yourself! where are you from?" and he says place. which is like, not far at all from where you live. you, at that point, are emotion beyond belief. so you keep talking... you find out he is into the same things as you are. like Verb - Present ends in ING, going to place, going Verb - Present ends in ING, and he even likes the same kind of Noun you like. a few unit of time s go by and your conversation goes a little further . he tells you he has a fantasy involving you dressing up in a Noun costume and Verb - Present ends in ING his body part in a vehicle and you are like mindblown because you have always wanted to do that exact thing. and you tell him this. you also tell him you have a fantasy in which he Verb - Present ends in S your bodypart in place while there are approximately number other people who are watching or at least can Verb - Base Form the 2 of you. things are going Adverb until all the sudden it is number o clock and you have to leave to go to place.

and you don't want to go at all. so you give him your phone number. and you leave, even though you have been drinking alcoholic drink all day while talking to him. You are sitting in place studying a subject in school or maybe you're at work Verb - Present ends in ING a Noun and you get a text ... you get so emotion because you think Oh my god! It's sexy guys name !!! but it's not...it's your a relative or your friend name of a friend who's just texting you to see what youre doing on day of the week. which kind of Verb - Present ends in S you. but you get home and you immediately make a drink of liquor and fruit juice and check your messages again. He is online. and he has sent you a picture of his type dic k here. which is Adjective, like, the Adjective - Ends in EST type dic k here you've ever seen. seriously, it almost makes you want to Verb - Base Form the computer screen looking at it. so you send him a picture of you laying on the piece of furniture almost naked...not Adverb naked, because you don't want him to think you're some kind of Noun or Adjective slut or anything. You have a few more liquor and fruit drinks...like number more, and you decide to dress up in your heels and a occupation costume and you end up sending him like number pictures. but you (Adverb) still haven't showed him your body part. and you're starting to wonder why he still hasn't given you his phone number or asked you out to a restaurant you like or even invited you over to his house to Verb - Base Form and drink liquor. a few days later you still haven't heard from him...and you start to think you have been Verb - Past Tense. You wonder if you got food ed like that MTV show and like that one sport player with some nationality name.. and then... a Noun * happens! sexy guys name actually texts you! He tells you he thinks your body part is Adjective and he can't wait for you to suck his type dic k here in the vehicle and let him Verb - Base Form all over your body part and type c u m here on your face...which you're completely, Adverb into. but youre still kind of emotion since he still hasn't asked you out to eat nationality food or anything. and you're trying to be an Adjective girl. at least once, with this guy...because really you want to marry this one! and you've only known him number days. but he's just perfect. and then when you send him a picture of whatever you call your va gina and he still doesn't reply, you realize that he was most likely just a Noun. just some dirty old Noun Verb - Present ends in ING on the computer in the Adjective hours of the night. you have been animal -ed. just like that mtv show tried to Verb - Base Form you about.
