

Mystery Story

1. Adjective
2. Verb - Past Tense
3. Adverb
4. Noun - Plural
5. Noun - Plural
6. Adjective
7. Verb - Past Participle
8. Preposition Or Subordinating Conjunction
9. Verb - Present Tense
10. Verb - Present Tense
11. Verb - Past Tense
12. Noun
13. Noun
14. Noun

Mystery Story

It was a Adjective and stormy night. Everyone in the manor of the baron's large estate Verb - Past Tense huddled Adverb by the fires, tended by the stalwart Noun - Plural. Despite the dreary weather, the Noun - Plural tried to keep warm and Adjective by drinking mulled cider. One lone groundskeeper - clasping his thick cloak around him and trying to keep off the rain - Verb - Past Participle Preposition or subordinating conjunction.

He tripped over something. Verb - Present Tense out his Verb - Present Tense lantern, he tried to make out what it was. He gasped. It Verb - Past Tense a body!

He tried to identify it, but the darkness and the rain make it difficult. He began to hurry inside.

Once inside, he shook off his wet cloak and looked around for the baron. He asked the maids, the butlers, the baron's Noun, daughter, and even brother-in-law. None knew where he was.

"By God!" exclaimed the groundskeeper as he realized Noun no one had seen the baron for some time.

He quickly threw his cloak back on, and then went back out to find the body. Examining it closer, his Noun was confirmed...

Someone

had killed the baron!