The Cute Bunny

Once upon a time there was a cute Adjective rabbit but she didn't have a Noun. The Adjective rabbit really wanted a Noun where she could have dark green Noun and lots of love. One day when the rabbit was Verb - Present ends in ING of carrots a nice Noun came to adopt her. The Adjective girl in the family decided to name her Proper Noun. When they went inside the house she couldn't believe her eyes. There were bunnies everywhere. Proper Noun befriended one named Proper Noun. Proper Noun was Adjective and had Adjective ears. Proper Noun favorite food is a small piece of Noun, which is also Proper Noun! They became Adjective friends.

They loved to play hide and seek in cardboard Noun and play Verb - Base Form. They stayed Noun for the next 9 years.
