

Countries

1. Noun - Plural
2. Noun
3. Country
4. Noun - Plural
5. Number
6. Country
7. Adverb
8. Adjective
9. Noun
10. Animal (Plural)
11. Noun
12. Noun
13. Number
14. Verb
15. Verb
16. Food
17. Food
18. Noun - Plural
19. Holiday
20. Verb - Present Ends In Ing
21. Noun
22. Adjective
23. Country

24. Verb
25. Verb
26. Noun
27. Verb - Present Ends In Ing
28. Food
29. Food
30. Food
31. Food
32. Adjective
33. Noun
34. Verb - Past Tense
35. Country
36. Noun
37. Number
38. Food
39. Noun
40. Adjective
41. Noun
42. Adjective
43. Verb
44. Country
45. Adjective
46. Verb - Past Tense
47. Country
48. Country

49. Noun _____

50. Verb _____

51. Number _____

Countries

Looking at a map- There are ways to determine where countries are located. If you want to see where

_____ Noun - Plural are, you can look in the middle of the _____ Noun to find Brazil. Above the equator, you can find countries including Canada, America, etc. Below the equator, you can find countries including _____ country, South Africa, etc. Looking at the points at the map, you find major _____ Noun - Plural.

Looking at the stars on the map, you find the capital of a country. There are _____ Number countries in the world. A few countries in North America include Cuba, Bahamas, Mexico, Canada, Puerto Rico, Haiti, Panama, U.S., El Salvador, etc.

France- The capital of _____ country is Paris. The population of France is 65.7 million people that live there.

French is spoke _____ Adverb around France. French is also the second most _____ Adjective language in Europe. France's motto is "Liberte, Egalite, Fraternite" (Liberty, equality, fraternity). Typical French

_____ Noun includes breadsticks, crepes, and _____ Animal (plural). France also has an independence day... kind of. Their independence day is called _____ Noun in Europe Day. It celebrates the _____ Noun of captives during World War 2.

Germany: The capital of Germany is Berlin. The population of Germany is approximately _____ Number million people. 99% of Germans can _____ Verb and _____ Verb. People in Germany mostly speak

German. The main government types are democrats and republicans. Germans love their _____ food.

Common German foods include brezelen, sauerkraut, black forest cake, sausages, and of course: _____ food!

Many Germans enjoy sports and there are many German _____ Noun - Plural clubs. Germans also celebrate _____ holiday.

During Christmas, Germans are just like Americans- making white dough treats, and _____ _____ Christmas carols. The Christmas Carols are different in Germany than in America.

Italy: Italy has a population of 61.3 million people living in it. The _____ of Italy is Rome. Rome is often called the _____ city. People from _____ speak Latin, Italian, and French. Italians speak French and Latin in Northern Italy. More than 98% of Italy can _____ and _____. Popular sports in Italy include cycling, _____, soccer, and motor _____. Italian main dishes include pork, _____, seafood, potatoes, rice, and _____ items. Other Italian foods include pizza, _____, gelato, _____, and mozzarella. Marmots and sheep are common animals in Italy. Lynx are _____ in Italy. Because of a _____ in numbers, brown bears are now _____ in Italy.

Cuba: In the air, _____ looks like an alligator. The capital and biggest _____ in Cuba is Havana. _____ million people live in Cuba. The main crops Cuba plants is _____ and tobacco. All _____ in Cuba is served at the same time. Dominoes is a very _____ game in Cuba. People from Cuba often speak Spanish. Rio Cauto is the longest _____ in Cuba. 99.8% of Cuba can read _____ . Cuba has a _____ climate.

Australia: The capital of Australia is Canberra. Australians _____ English. Australia is the only country in the continent of _____. An animal that lives in Australia is a wombat. They are herbivores with _____ teeth. Two thirds of Australia is desert. Australia is _____ into six states. The six states are Southern _____, Western Australia, New South Wales, Queensland, Victoria, and Tasmania.

Like _____^{country}_____, Australia has a _____^{Noun}_____ which get together to _____^{Verb}_____ the new president. The presidents are then there for a _____^{Number}_____ year term.