One day while I was walking home from I saw a Creature walk in front of my house. I slowly approached him with the thought that he might hurt me. As I came closer he turned towards me. His looked as if he crashed into a and rolled down a only to fall into a pile of It freaked me out so much that I nearly fainted before I started to run away faster than I ever thought possible. He followed me at a very pace before falling on his Repeat Last Body part and landing on my friend First Name of a Person. I stopped after he fell to pick up a Noun and then proceeded to throw it at the Repeat Last Creature . The Repeat Last Creature got up just before the Repeat Last Noun got there and hit Repeat Last First Name of a Person smack in the Body part. I woke up soon after finding my entire ordeal as just a bad dream.
