The East Linn Christian Academy Mystery

The fifth grade class at East Linn Christian _____ Noun was getting ready to _____ Verb - Base Form. There were only _____ Number more weeks left of school before Summer freedom. Much like _____ Adjective Spring seasons in Oregon, it began to _____ Verb - Base Form quite _____ Adverb. The clouds created a _____ Adjective shadow over the school. Suddenly, there was thunder and lightening! The _____ Noun flickered _____ Adverb and then went out for a brief moment. _____ Person in the room let out a high-pitched scream and _____ Person in the room cracked a joke to lighten the mood. When the lights finally came back on, something was _____ Adjective. _____ Person in the room was hovering in the air! Every time _____ Person in the room _____ the room took a step, flowers grew up from the ground. _____ Person in the room turned invisible every time he _____ Verb - Past Tense. What was going on? Before they could rejoice in their new powers, lightening stuck once again! The _____ Noun blacked-out and came back on. Everyone was back in their seats. The students tried to tell their parents about their _____ Noun, but thought they were just running away with their _____ Noun. Only the 5th grade _____ Noun of 2014 will ever know the _____ Adjective story on the Spring day at ELCA
