My Soaring Crow

Avast below the Adjective sky,
The crow flew through the nigh.
Resting the ash of the past.
He for the one who is gone
He looks and looks, never discovers.
! sounds a and the crow picks up.
"Go, Go away," screamed the one who is gone, "pick up your and pull yourself away from the ash of yesterday."
All your will guide you away,
Take your love for imperfection and take who is coming for you will never rest, nor will my desire to keep you away. Take your wings and fly away, or take them, break them, and throw them to the ground.
Although I care and wish you were safe in my nest, you must soar to safety, away from me.
