Alto Saxophone Mad Libs

There once was a(n) Adjective marching band with a(n) Adjective saxophone section. One their way to Washington D.C., they decided to Verb - Base Form to keep themselves entertained. Their section leader Jenna loved to Verb - Base Form; so, her, Scott, Bogan, and Madison all Verb - Past Tense to the song "song name." Meanwhile, Brigid and Alyssa were online shopping for Noun - Plural. "exclamation" Brigid exclaimed, "that's a low price!" Jade was on the back of the bus, where she was Verb - Present ends in ING Sam's nails. His nails turned out Adjective, as usual. Emma, Zoey, Mikayla, and Shelby are very good at Verb - Present ends in ING, so they Adverb sat in the front of the bus while they Verb - Past Tense. Finally, Ray and Dawson Verb - Past Tense with each other until one of them became Adjective. Once the Adjective bus finally arrived in Washington, the saxophone section played their hearts out and helped the band win first place!
