Every time he farts my           Noun - Plural           tie double knotted. I would clean my           Noun - Plural           more often. Once I saw him I           Verb - Past Tense          . He looked confused at me and talked to my           Noun - Plural          . He says why does everyone do that. I am that beautiful. No. Never           Verb          . Just go to sleep costs. Costs was the shoe           Noun - Plural           name. The           Adjective           pigs finally looked in a mirror and said I am so           Adjective          . Not only the           Adjective           pig.
