

Ugly Fish

1. Verb - 3Rd Person Singular Present

Ugly Fish

Ugly fish is very mean. He likes having the whole fish tank to himself.

He can go in and out of his driftwood and eat his special briny flakes all he wants.

Ugly fish is not going to let any fish have this privilege.

He chased teensy, kissy, stripy, and spotty fish until he ate them, leaving only himself inside the fish tank.

Ugly fish becomes depressed when he finds out Verb - 3rd Person Singular Present he is all alone.

Shiny fish enters the tank.

Ugly fish gladly shows Shiny fish around.

Shiny fish is just like Ugly fish.

He wants the fish tank to himself, so Shiny fish chases Ugly fish and then eats him.

