Post Department

The HCO Post Department is getting ready for a Adjective June! We've been reliving the Adjective 1960s, preparing for the premiere of "The Sixties" and its series run through June. At the same time, we'll be diving into our Sixties work and getting a few more episodes out of the Part of Building ! Walk Adverb through Post, or you might run into a delivery going out. In the meantime, stay out of Edit 8 if you don't want to groove to the Favorite Sixties Band.

We are bodypart-deep in Dawn of the Planet of the Plural Animal (plural), knocking out EPK and starting on DVD. The more we work on it, the more we like the idea of it - a world run by Favorite Post Dog doesn't seem too bad, if you love naps.

If you prefer singing to explosions, stop by Post to catch our early work on Fabricate and Pitch Perfect 2. Our Edit Bays are sounding more and more like karaoke bars, minus Decade With The Best Hair power ballads.

Like the _____ West? Our A Million Ways to Die in the West editors are cranking out DVD and Eradicated Disease . Or a saloon fight over _______ Minor Issue to Disagree About _____. Scary times.

Retail

Legacy and Simons Says are both getting the Sizzle treatment at HCO this June, which is great if you want to get from the forests of _______ National Park______ to the wilds of the fashion industry. And we're taking plenty of Bollywood breaks for Indian Dish as we keep trucking with Piquant.
