Kidney Problems

Hi, I'm _____<sup>Proper Noun</sup>_____. I am a super sporty girl. I play all kinds of sports like _____<sup>Noun</sup>_____, doctors appointments. He told me something was wrong with my kidney's. I had learned about them at school.
They filter the _____<sup>Adjective</sup>_____ stuff out off your blood. The doctors said I had Kidney Failure. I was scared my life would totally change. I was told I could go on something called dialysis. There are two types, Hemo and paratinerl or PD. PD could be down at home so it _____<sup>Verb</sup>_____ my schedule. You had to be on for hours, but it works. They also said I would get put on the _____<sup>Verb - Present Tense</sup>_____ list for a kidney. My _____<sup>Adjective</sup>_____ family was surprised when I got a kidney in _____<sup>Number</sup>_____ months. We were all happy and I still played sports
