Rosa Parks

Rosa Parks first started school when she was Adjective. Her first teacher was name. When Rosa walked to school white people would verb trash at her. Later she got married to celebrity male who was a member of the NAACP (National Association for the Advancement of Colored People). Rosa wanted to be a member too, but Raymond Parks said it was too Adjective. Later she convinced him to let her be in the program. After Rosa refused to give up her seat on the bus, the NAACP started a bus boycott. They spread the news to all the African American plural noun in the community. When the day came, only two passengers were on the bus and they were plural noun. The boycott lasted number days!
