Mikhail's Adventure

| Once upon a time Mikhail was watching Noun - Plural fly outside his window when he saw something |
|--|
| in the neighbor's lawn. |
| "What is that Adjective thing I see?" Mikhail gazed at the object with narrowed eyes. |
| To his great surprise, the unknown object began to walk toward him. Mikhail gasped. This reminded him |
| vaguely of his terrorist days. |
| "I shall have to call my friend Harry," Mikhail said Adverb . |
| However, Harry was nowhere to be found. The object was still approaching! Mikhail had a |
| feeling in the pit of his puppet stomach. |
| As the object came closer, Mikhail sprang into action. Using his Adjective stumps he grabbed a nearby |
| weapon and began to slink out of the front door Adverb . When he reached the front lawn, he realized |
| that the object was gone! |
| "What a Adjective situation I have been led into," Mikhail remarked Adverb . |
| He chuckled Adverb . Whatever the object had been was surely scared away now by Mikhail's |
| Adjective physique and features. Mikhail prepared to go back indoors. He grasped his |
| weapon between his Adjective stumps and marched on his Adjective legs toward the front door. |
| It was locked! |
| "What is this!" Mikhail began to feelEmotion |
| Mikhail beat upon the door with his leg. To no avail. Mikhail was trapped in the | wilderness that is suburbia.

Mikhail began to Verb - Base Form. He would never be free of Noun. He missed Noun;

he missed his ______. Most of all, he missed the pale blue blanket his mother swaddled him in until his eyelids would droop with sleep.

Before Mikhail could even raise his head, however, Harry swooped in with a giant butterfly net and caught the Adjective puppet.

Mikhail was the victim of a Adjective prank. How Adjective!

The end.
