Turning 25

Turning 25 isn't easy. You finally realize being an           Noun           isn't just           Adjective           and           Noun - Plural          . You learn that you can't           Verb - Base Form           without paying your           Noun - Plural           or Noun          . You're constantly under pressure to be good at your job as a           Adjective                     Noun          .
Finding a           Noun           isn't easy anymore either! They're all too           Adjective           or totally           Adjective          .
But alas, you know the good one will be just around the corner. Turning 25 isn't all           Adjective          , though.
You're finally making enough money to           Verb - Base Form           and           Verb - Base Form           yourself. You also have a great           Adjective                     Noun           who is always there to help you and hold your           Noun           back while you puke up three bottles of           Noun          . Cheers to life as an adult and not           Verb - Present ends in ING on a mold-covered mattress in a           Noun           infested room in the ghetto anymore!
