Section 106

Section 106 does not require ________ of historic properties. Instead, it requires that we consider the ________ of our undertakings on historic properties. It is important to remember that Section 106 accommodates both preservation and ________. Sometimes other factors or resources may require us to make _________ decisions in which we cannot preserve every historic property. For example, say a park was established to protect a significant natural resource that is ________ a historic property. In that situation, the park may need to consider "letting go" of that historic property to protect the significant natural _______.
