My Trip to Disneyland

I had an exciting day at Disneyland; it was very _____ type of weather _____ when we got to the park in the morning.

Immediately after getting our tickets and entering, we saw a patch of grass with _____ color _____ and _____ color _____ flowers in the shape of Mickey Mouse! Behind it, there were train tracks, so I knew that we were right next to Main Street, USA. The area was full of sounds, such as _____ sound _____ and _____ sound _____. As we walked along the street, I tried to find the _____ type of building _____, because Walt Disney used to live in an apartment above it!

Later on, we headed straight over to _____ one of the lands in Disneyland _____ land, and the first thing we saw was a huge _____ type of building _____. We went on a few rides there, like _____ a ride in Disneyland _____ and _____ a ride in Disneyland _____.

By then, we all wanted something to eat because we were _____ emotion _____, so we decided to stop at a _____ a place you can eat at _____ for lunch.

Next, after we finished eating and felt _____ emotion _____, we walked over to _____ one of the lands in Disneyland _____ land, because I was really excited to ride _____ a ride in Disneyland _____. When we were waiting in line, _____ a Disney _____ character _____ came up to everyone, and we got to take a photo with them! By the time we finished up our last ride, we were all pretty tired so we went home. I had such a _____ adjective _____ day at Disneyland!
