The Missing Megaphone Of Doom

one day a           Noun           was sleeping all of a sudden he he           Verb - Base Form           his           Noun          ! he looked everywhere first he looked in a haunted           Location           but it just was a scary           Event          . next he looked in the original motion picture Event           but it was just a           Noun          . suddenly he saw a megaphone haha all mine he stole and took over the universe the end but he failed and made a           Animal           grow a coffee cupout of his ear horrible           Noun - Plural           that suck he said i am so angry let me           Verb - Base Form           a           Animal instead he said. that's all
