MAD LIBS - LOVE LETTER

My Adjective darling,

I love you more than Noun itself. Each minute away from you is a/an Noun, each hour a/an Adjective eternity. Without you, life is dull, boring, and Adjective. I feel like a baby without my Noun, a toddler without my teddy Noun, a dog without its Noun. I can't get you out of my Part of the Body. I can't stop thinking about the color of your Noun, the way you wear your Noun, the way you Verb a joke. This morning when the mail Noun brought your special delivery Noun - Plural, my Part of the Body skipped a beat, my Part of the Body was in my throat, and my Noun trembled so much, I could hardly Verb your Noun. What you said set my Noun on fire. Do write again. Until then, I love you from the bottom of my Part of the Body.

I will Verb you always,

Person in Room
