The Coolest Farm Trip Ever

Our class went to a/an Adjective farm this Day of the Week, to see how farmers Verb - Base Form and how they take care of their Noun - Plural. We arrived at the Adjective place and the owner, Mr. Last Name, came out to Verb - Base Form us. He Verb - Past Tense us to a Color barn, where we Verb - Past Tense all sorts of Noun - Plural like the Animal, and the Animal. One of them walked up to me and went "Silly Noise!" That's when Mr. Same Last Name led us out of the Building and into a field full of long Part of Body + -ed Animal (plural). First Name of a Person stepped in a/an Adjective Noun patty. "Exclamation!" said Same Name. We walked through the field, then went to a/an Animal sty. They went "Silly Noise !" and Silly Noise !" They rolled around in Nasty Liquid and splashed and Verb - Past Tense. Then we had to say goodbye, and got back on the Kind of Car. I thought we were going straight back to Place, but we Verb - Past Tense at a/an Food parlor! This was the Adjective - Ends in EST farm trip I've ever been on!
