Colors of the Wind

You think I'm an ignorant savage
And you've been so many places
I guess it must be so
But still I cannot see
If the savage one is me
How can there be so much that you don't know?
You don't know
You think you own whatever you land on
The Earth is just a thing you can claim
But I know every Noun and Noun and Noun
Has a life, has a spirit, has a
You think the only who are Noun - Plural who are Noun - Plural
Are the people who look and think like you
But if you Verb - Base Form the footsteps of a Noun
You'll things you never knew you never knew

Have

you ever heard	the Animal cry to the	ne blue corn	moon
Or asked the	Verb - Present ends in ING	Animal	why he	Verb - Past Tense	?
Can you sing w	vith all the voices of the mou	intains?
Can you	verb - Base Form with all the	colors of the	e Noun	?
Can you	Verb - Base Form with all the	colors of the	Noun	?
Come run the h	nidden pine trails of the fores	st
Come taste the	sunsweet berries of the Eart	h
Come roll in al	l the riches all around you
And for once, r	never wonder what they're w	orth
The rainstorm a	and the river are my brothers	S
The heron and	the otter are my friends
And we are all	connected to each other
In a circle, in a	hoop that never ends
How high will	the sycamore grow?
If you cut it do	wn, then you'll never know
And you'll neve	er hear the wolf cry to the bl	ue corn moo	n

For whether we are white or copper skinned

We need to sing with all the voices of the mountains

We need to paint with all the colors of the wind

You can own the Earth and still

All you'll own is Earth until

You can paint with all the colors of the wind
