Welcome to RMS

Welcome to _____ Proper Noun Middle School. I am _____ Adverb excited to have you in my class this school year. In order to meet all of your educational needs, I need to get to know you in order to make you RISE To High School and Beyond. It is only fair that since I need to get to know you, you should also get to know me.

I am a _____ Adjective. I am aware of this. If someone is going to run into a _____ Noun, it's me. If someone is going to come out of the restroom with _____ Noun paper on their foot, that is also going to be me. I don't try to hide the fact that I am a _____ Adjective, I embrace it. It makes me who I am. I am human and make mistakes too. It's just happens to me more often than others.

I was born and raised in the high desert and currently live in _____ Proper Noun - Plural. I have been married to my husband, Shannon for 14 years. He is a general contractor (want to be cattle rancher). We have _____ Adjective kids. Olivia is 10 years old and is in the 5th grade. Bryce and Cade are twins, they are 8 years old and they are in the 3rd grade.

I got my _____ Adjective degree, credential, and _____ Adjective degree all from Azusa Pacific University.

My husband and boys are Dodger fans, my daughter is an Angel fan. I prefer the _____ Proper Noun - Plural but it's hard not to love the _____ Proper Noun - Plural too.

My favorite color is Adjective. I do not have a favorite number and do not have any superstitions, however, I am scared of the Adjective! I was going to be a cop and backed out of going to the academy because I don't think I could work the graveyard shift. Then I wanted to work as a juvenile probation officer and ended up being a teacher instead.

My family likes to go Verb - Present ends in ING and Verb - Present ends in ING. We also team rope every chance we get.

When I am not outside Verb - Present ends in ING with my kids or riding bikes or horses, I enjoy curling up on the couch with a good Noun.

I love teaching and learning new things all the time. I hope this year you will enjoy learning as much as I do!
