First Day in Mrs. Weiss' Classroom

Today was the first day of school. I was a little _____ Adjective _____ because I'd heard some _____ Adjective _____ rumors about our new 7th grade English teacher.

Don't get me wrong - some kids thought that Mrs. Weiss was _____ Adjective _____, but there were many who thought she was the _____ Superlative Adjective _____ teacher they'd ever met.

Some kids who had her as a substitute last year told us how she would _____ Verb _____ _____ Noun - Plural _____ to the front of the classroom and _____ Verb _____ _____ Noun - Plural _____ to get the class's attention. When a student got out of line you could count on Mrs. Weiss to _____ Verb _____, then _____ Verb _____ _____ Noun - Plural _____. But most of the time, Mrs. Weiss was very _____ Adjective _____.

So you see, many of us were a little _____ Adjective _____ when we first entered the comfortable classroom.

The room was decorated with _____ Adjective _____ _____ Noun - Plural _____ and _____ Adjective _____ _____ Noun - Plural _____.

The desks were arranged in a _____ Geometric Shape _____. There was even a _____ Noun _____ hanging from the ceiling.

But what I noticed first was what the _____ Adjective _____ teacher was wearing. I don't know about the other kids, but I have never seen a teacher wearing pants that shade of _____ Color _____. The outfit looked like something off of _____ Movie or TV Show _____!

Some of us weren't sure whether to _____^{Verb} or _____^{Verb}, but we were _____^{Adjective} and she didn't seem to notice our suppressed _____^{Noun - Feeling}.

Whatever they say, one thing is for certain: this is going to be an _____^{Adjective} year in Mrs. Weiss' class!
