Why I love Fall

Yesterday John and I went for a _____ Adjective fall walk. It was getting colder, so we had to put on our woolly _____ Noun - Plural and sweaters.

Halfway down the block, we saw the Carter family out in their yard. The Carter children were raking _____ Adjective piles of leaves and _____ Verb - Present Tense into them. Mrs. Carter was planting flower bulbs so she would have beautiful _____ Adjective flowers in the spring.

"Fall is in the air," John said. "Soon the days will be getting more _____ Adjective."

We walked down Johnson Street admiring the _____ Adjective and orange leaves. Overhead, birds were flying south for the winter. Two squirrels _____ Verb - Past Participle by, hiding acorns in a tree for the winter.

"That makes me _____ Verb - Past Tense," said John. "Maybe we should go pick some nice _____ Adjective red apples and bake them in a pie."

"Wow!" I said. "That sounds _____ Adjective ."
