Ms. Gee's SSR Battle

It was a cool day in mid-September. Students _____ Adverb_____ sat down in Ms. Gee's first period English class. A fresh pot of _____ Noun_____ was brewing in the background. "Alright, class" Ms. Gee boomed, "please, get out your _____ Adjective_____ books for SSR". The class cheerfully complied with her directions (as they always do).
As _____ Person_____ sat down and opened their book, all of the sudden a swarm of _____ Noun - Plural_____ sprang from the pages and began _____ Verb - Present ends in ING_____ wildly. "Don't worry!" shouted Ms. Gee, "I got this". She whipped out Harry Potter and the Prisoner of Azkaban, opened it _____ Adverb_____, and three _____ Adjective_____ Dementors drifted off the pages. The Dementors _____ Verb - Past Tense_____, _____ Verb - Past Tense_____, and

Verb - Past Tense_____ until all of the _____ Same Noun - Pural_____ retreated to the musty pages of their book. And that is the story of how Ms. Gee saved SSR for the whole class.
