Mad Lib

The man _____
_____ walked into the room. He strode over to the center of the room which had a(n) _____ leather chair. He looked up and saw a large, _____ flat screen TV on the _____ yellow wall. A(n) _____ woman entered the room, and the man stood _____ to greet her. She was young with long, curly blond hair, and she looked _____ nervous
. The _____ man raised his shaking hand slowly and _____ her hand. "This doesn't have to happen," he whispered quietly, "we can make things right." The quiet woman _____ at him and shook her head no before _____ out through the _____ wooden door she entered in. The man inspected the object she had put in his hand during the handshake. It was a single _____, _____, his greatest weakness due to him being allergic to it. He knew he couldn't do anything else; he was a prisoner, so he was forced to take it. The man started crying, and put the _____ in his mouth. After a few short minutes the man stopped crying and _____ all together. He was dead.
