Christmas at Hogwarts

Millie was so [ Feeling ] she could hardly contain it - finally, Christmas was here! She wondered if she would get the [ Noun ], [ Noun ], or [ Noun - Plural ] she'd been hoping for. Christmas was also a time of giving though, and she couldn't wait to [ Verb - Base Form ] the [ Noun - Plural ] she made to her friends. Waking up bright and early on Christmas morning, she [ Verb - Past Tense ] out of bed and [ Adverb ] [ Verb - Past Tense ] downstairs to the common room. Under the [ Adjective ] Christmas tree in the center of the room were three gifts with her name on it. As she [ Verb - Past Tense ] opened the paper she discovered that the presents were not, in fact, the presents that she wanted, but they contained [ Noun ], [ Adjective ] [ Noun - Plural ], and [ Adjective ] [ Noun ]. She felt incredibly [ Feeling ]. After changing out of her PJs and into her [ Noun ] outfit, she went down to the Grand Hall, where she [ Verb - Past Tense ] Evangeline, Amy, and the rest of the gang. "Merry Christmas, guys!" she exclaimed. "Here, I have presents for you, just small things." She produced seven small, wrapped gifts and handed them to her friends, the presents wrapped in the person's respective house color. But there was one green-wrapped gift sitting at the bottom of her bag. Swallowing her pride, she marched over to Regulus and tapped him on the [ Part of Body ]. "Merry Christmas, Regulus," she said with a slight smile, holding out the gift to him. As he unwrapped it, her eyes grew wide with [ Feeling ] when she realized she'd misplaced his present. Instead of giving him the [ Noun ] she bought for him, she had wrapped her mother's [ Noun ] instead!
