Adventures in Washington Square Park

It was a Adjective Adjective day in Washington Square Park. It was so Adjective that Jessica decided she was going to go for a Noun. She ended up Verb - Present Tense Noun - Plural with the Noun lady, and she used Noun to decorate the concrete. She then listened to some jazz Noun, and saw acrobat performers jumping over the Noun. An ice-cream man in the park sold her expensive Noun - Plural, and a Noun dealer tried selling her his Noun. The sun began to Verb, and Jessica was so Verb - Past Participle at the beauty of the Noun that she began to Verb. She began to get cold so she asked a man for his jacket, and he said "Adverb!" Jessica Verb - 3rd Person Singular Present the park.
