old men

Well,

An elderly Determiner on a Moped, looking about Adjective years old, pulls up next to a Doctor at a street light.

The old Preposition or subordinating conjunction looks over at the sleek shiny car and asks, "What kind of Verb - Past Tense ya got there, sonny?"

The doctor replies, "A Ferrari GTO. It cost half a Number dollars!"

"That's a lot of money," says the old man. "Why does it cost so much?"

"Because this car can do up to Determiner miles an hour!" states the doctor proudly.

The Moped driver asks, "Mind if I take a look inside?"

"No Noun," replies the doctor.

So

the old man pokes his head in the window and looks around. Then, sitting back on his Moped, the old man says,

"That's a pretty Adjective Noun, all right.... But I'll stick with my Moped!"

Just then the light changes, so the doctor decides to show the old Pronoun just what his Verb can do. He floors it, and within Number seconds the speedometer reads Number mph.

Suddenly, he notices a dot in his rear view mirror. It seems to be getting Adverb - Comparative !

He to down to see what it could be and suddenly WHOOOOSSSHHH! Something whips by him going much Adverb - Comparative !

"What on Verb could be going faster than my Ferrari?" the doctor asks himself.

He presses harder on the accelerator and takes the Ferrari up to 180 mph.

Then, up ahead of him, he sees that it's the old Determiner on the Moped!

Amazed that the Moped could pass his Ferrari, he gives it more gas and passes the Moped at Coordinating conjunction mph and he's feeling pretty good until he looks in his mirror and sees the old Preposition or subordinating conjunction gaining on him AGAIN!

Astounded by the speed of this old Pronoun, he floors the Coordinating conjunction pedal and takes the Ferrari all the way up to 220 mph.

Not ten seconds later, he sees the Moped bearing down on him again! The Ferrari is flat out, and there's nothing he can do !

Suddenly, the Moped plows into the back of his Ferrari, Adjective the rear end.

The doctor stops and jumps out and unbelievably the old Adverb is still alive.

He runs up to the banged-up old Verb - 3rd Person Singular Present and says, "I'm a doctor... Is there anything I can do for you ?"

The old man whispers,

"Unhook my Noun from your side view mirror!"
