Lunch Class: Part 1

The Location is the place where a hundred Animal (plural) get together and eat piles of Food that the Adjective Animal (plural) drop onto their trays. The Insulting Name Plural Conjunction Adjective Insulting Name Plural (I'd call them Noun - Plural and Noun - Plural, but those terms are Adjective. But then again, so is the word Noun h".) occupy the Number middle tables, the center of attention. Just what everyone needs, a place front and center for all the lower people to stare them while their self-esteems get Adjective and Adjective.

The Insulting Name Plural and Insulting Name Plural are compiled into one Furniture near the Furniture Plural, where most of them just graze on bags of Food and talk about how much they Verb - Base Form life. This is usually just the Insulting Name Plural.

The Insulting Name Plural, whom I almost hate as much as the Insulting Name Plural and dumb Insulting Name Plural, reside at a couple of Furniture Plural near the outside of the Location.

Some of the Adjective Animal (plural) Verb - Base Form over there as well, and have group discussions about things I don't even get, such as the meaning of Noun - Plural and the Adjective Noun - Plural of different Animal (plural). If I had friends, I would talk about Food and Food, because _____ Noun is quite _____ Adjective so that could be an interesting conversation.

The _____ Insulting Name Plural are sprinkled everywhere, in fact, it's too damn _____ Adjective so that's all I'm going to say about them.

Then there are those people that try to be _____ Animal (plural) but fail miserably. I have no _____ Adjective and _____ Adjective name for them, so I just call them _____ Animal (plural). They usually glare at the _____ Animal (plural) and dumb _____ Animal (plural) and size them up, and this results in a few of them _____ Verb - Present ends in ING.

Then there's me. I reside at a secluded _____ Furniture in the far corner of the _____ Location by the _____ Furniture Plural and the steps to the music _____ Noun, wedged right inbetween two empty _____ Noun - Plural.

I never eat _____ Noun - Plural unless I am pleased with the menu, for instance, if we're having _____ Noun - Plural, hell yes I will _____ Verb - Base Form _____ Noun - Plural.

I usually just put my _____ Plural Body Part up onto _____ Adjective table and take out an _____ Adjective

Animal and _____
Verb - Base Form it for the whole period. No one usually bothers me, so I don't bother anyone, and lunch is typically very relaxing.

I was indulged in _____
First Name of a Person _____
Adjective and the _____ Noun of _____ Liquid when I hear a _____
Noun drop onto the table behind me, a sound I never hear because my secluded corner is always so quiet and desolate.

I place my _____ Noun inside my _____
Part of Body and turn around in my seat and spot the new boy from _____ Location sliding into a seat and placing his _____ Plural Body Part onto the table. His big _____ Adjective eyes look sad, if I looked that way all the time I'd get _____ Verb - Past Tense to the ground.

You can't look vulnerable at _____ Location, or you'll get _____ Verb - Past Tense.

Is this kid even in a _____
Location? Everyone falls into a _____
Furniture when they enter _____
Adjective

Location, even the _____ Animal (plural) who get weirder an weirder each year.

This kid must've seriously done something bad to have ended up in a _____ Location _____ such as this.

I opened my _____ Part of Body _____ to _____ Verb - Base Form _____ something when I froze up and realized I didn't know this kid and my social skills aren't exactly _____ Adjective _____.

"_____ Exclamation _____..." I uttered. _____ Animal (plural) _____ Animal (plural) _____ The kid looked at me strangely, an eyebrow ishshejwi and his _____ Part of Body _____ tilted.

Great, even the weird new kid thinks I'm _____ Adjective _____, and I barley said an entire word. This is a _____ Noun _____ I must _____ Verb - Base Form _____. I really should lock myself in the _____ Adjective _____ _____ Location _____ and _____ Verb - Base Form _____ myself repeatedly with the mop.

I clear my throat and with a shaky hand, hold it out. "I'm _____ First Name of a Person _____. _____ First Name of a Person _____ _____ Last Name _____. Amd you are?" I nearly cringe after this statement, it was so out of character and _____ Adjective _____. What the hell is wrong with me?

The

_____ Adjective _____ Location _____ sounding nice now.

Then I remembered. "Your name is _____ First Name of a Person _____ right?"

He nods slowly, timidly shaking my hand. I quickly drop mine before it can get sweaty from anxiety.

"Where you from?" There, that's a good conversation starter right?

_____ Exclamation _____, I don't know. The only time I speak to the _____ Insulting Name Plural _____ at school is when they _____ Verb - Base Form _____ me and I _____ Verb - Base Form _____ back. See, that is what I'm good at. _____ Animal _____. Not being a _____ Adjective _____ Animal _____.

"_____ Location _____." He stuttered. His eyes didn't meet mine and I realize this kid is just as _____ Adjective _____ as I am, maybe even more _____ Adjective _____. This is his first time at _____ Location _____, he's probably _____ Verb - _____

_____ Present ends in ING _____

on the inside.

I nod and my mouth forms an " _____ Letter ____ ". The conversation ends there when _____ First Name of a Person _____ looks down at his _____ Plural Body Part _____ and I begin gravitating towards my book again to use up the
