On The Sonnet

If by dull rhymes our English must be chain'd,

And, like _____Mythological Figure_____, the _____Poetry Genre_____ _____Word that rhymes with complete_____

Fetter'd, in spite of pained loveliness;

Let us find out, if we must be constrain'd,

_____Type of Footwear_____ more interwoven and complete

To fit the naked foot of poesy;

Let us inspect the _____stringed musical instrument_____, and weigh the stress

Of every chord, and see what may be gain'd

By ear industrious, and attention meet:

Misers of sound and syllable, no _____one syllable word that rhymes with stress_____

Than _____Mythological Figure_____ of his coinage, let us be

_____One of the seven deadly sins_____ of dead leaves in the bay wreath crown;

So, if we may not let the _____Mythological Figure_____ be free,

She will be bound with garlands of her _____off-rhyme with the word crown_____.
