Bank Robbery

"We need the _____^{Noun}, Tasha!", Jennifer _____^{Verb - Past Tense} in response to Tasha's objections.

"But isn't there a better way? We can raise the money", Tasha _____^{Adjective} argued.

It all started that afternoon, three days before our crime was committed. We were at the _____^{Noun} earlier that day, Jennifer noticed the leather _____^{Noun} that was exactly the same as the one she had ruined from her mother. She knew her mother would be upset that the jacket which had been borrowed was ruined, she was desperate to replace it.

"Why can't you just _____^{Verb - Base Form} your mom about the jacket?", Tasha asked bewildered.

We were in a tough _____^{Noun}, Jennifer's plan would have to go through perfectly if we were going to get away with it. I, Ally White, will be the _____^{Noun} in our robbery. Tasha will be the one wielding the _____^{Adjective} _____^{Noun}. Jennifer will be the one with the _____^{Noun} and _____^{Noun}. All we needed was a bank to go to.

"We could go to the Chase down by the _____ Adjective _____ Noun _____!", Tasha suggested.

"That's an ignorant place to rob, Tasha", I stated in an enraged tone. "We'll visit three banks and choose one."

So we got into my mom's _____ Noun _____, and went off to the Heritage Bank. Sitting in the parking lot, we just sat there nervous and shaking. I suggested that we go to the Liberty bank, and everyone nervously agreed. As we were driving, Tasha snapped.

"I cant do this!", she yelled. "We don't need the money, Jennifer!"

After her outburst, Jennifer sat _____ Adjective _____ next to me. She had her eyes straight ahead. While we were passing the Chase bank that was small enough to be a _____ Adjective _____ Noun _____, Jennifer jumped out. I slowed the car down, Tasha ran after her just as the plan was made. Minutes passed and they weren't coming out. I heard the sirens of the police, and I looked into the bank to see Jennifer trying to open the _____ Noun _____.

"Oh no! The door is locked!", I _____ Verb - Past Tense _____ to myself in disbelief.

The police arrested Tasha, Jennifer, and I. After we were brought to the police station, each of us got one _____ Adjective _____ Noun _____ and I decided to call my mom. She came and our entire night went as terribly as the robbery. Later, we were fined and sent to _____ Noun _____ to decide whether our case was guilty or not.

I am currently writing this in _____ Proper Noun _____.
