Sonnet Writing To Himself

Young	celebrity	should not writ	te	Noun - Plural	_, if they dream
Some day to reach the bright bare seats of fame:
To such, thoughts and mighty feelings seem
As though, l	like foreign	things, they rare	ely cam	ie.
Eager as men when haply they have heard
Of some nev	w songster,	some gay-feathe	ered	Adjective	_,
That hath ov	ver blue	body of water	_ straye	ed in hope to fi	ind
In our thin f	foliage here	a summer home
Fain would	they catch th	ne bright things	in thei	r mind,
And cage th	em into son	nets as they con	ne.
No; they sho	ould serve th	neir wants most	sparing	gly
Till the ripe	time of	a song title ,	when y	oung thought	s fail,
Then their s	ad sonnets,	like old bards, n	night b	e
Merry as yo	outh, and yet	grey-haired and	l hale.
In our thin f	foliage here	aplace of choic	ee	home
Fain would	theyv	erb - Base Form	the bri	ght things in t	heir mind,
And cage th	em into son	nets as they con	ne.
No; they sho	ould serve th	neir wants most	sparing	gly,

the ripe time of song, when young thoughts fail,
Then their sonnets, like old bards, might be Merry as youth, and yet grey-haired and hale.
