CHAPTER ONE - ACADEMIC VOCABULARY

Verb - Present Ends In S
Adjective
Noun
Adjective
Adjective
Adjective
Adjective
Adjective
Adjective
Adjective
Noun
Adjective
Adjective
Adjective

CHAPTER ONE - ACADEMIC VOCABULARY

Just one can of spinach Verto-Present ended in 5 Popeye from a weakling into a hero. If land is always planted with the same crop, it will become less Adjuctive. Although Al's Norm is for a daytime job, he will work at night if necessary. Max and Helen had more clothes than they needed, so they donated their Adjuctive clothes to Goodwill. I can't imagine what that Adjuctive odor is from. It's like a mixture of burning tires and freshly cut grass. A man lived by himself in a cave most of his life. His was a Adjuctive life. I know you have reasons for quitting your job. What is the Adjuctive reason? Babysitting with a lot of children isn't easy--it's a Norm. The animal rescue is desperately in need of Adjuctive homes for dogs and cats they rescue. Maria felt like quitting her job to go back to school but knew she couldn't because she had three young children who were Adjuctive on her.

©2024 WordBlanks.com · All Rights Reserved.